Your #1 Miracle Superpower

Heart Hero

HEART HERO

Based on the information you've shared and told us about yourself, your #1 Miracle Superpower is what's known as the "Heart Hero".

Here's what that means

Your Motto: I Lead With an Open Heart

HEART HERO

Heart Heroes let love lead, and let their heart and their deep compassion guide them in their life.

Heart Heroes are loving, generous, and empathetic. They are giving by nature, and have an intuitive ability to sense other people's needs. A heart hero is often able to feel others' emotions as strongly as their own. Heart Heroes are often affected deeply by world events, because they feel the pain and struggles of others, and their deepest longing is for everyone to be safe, loved, and happy.

They are known for their sensitivity, and in fact, they may have even been criticized in the past for being "too sensitive." They let their heart and feelings guide them, and they make great listeners because they're quick to understand, empathize, and forgive. They are excellent space holders for others, as they are natural nurturers and caretakers.

As a Heart Hero, your capacity for love, generosity, and forgiveness is what creates the opening and space for miracles to flow into your life.

You can tap into your superpower more fully by enjoying quality time with friends and family, engaging in small acts of kindness, leaning into compassion in the midst of challenges, giving to yourself as well as others, doing things that make your heart sing, and paying attention to the good news happening in the world.

Common Miracle Blockers

If you're a Heart Hero, and you don't feel like you've stepped fully into your potential, it could be because you give away TOO MUCH of yourself.

If you feel like people are stepping over your boundaries, or they tend to take advantage of your generosity and giving nature, if sometimes you feel like, "what's left for me?" after you've put everyone else's needs before your own, you might be blocking miracles from coming into your life.

When you're always giving, you might have trouble receiving. And if, on some level, you believe that it's selfish to receive, you unconsciously push away miracles that are right in front of you!

It's common for a Heart Hero to feel like they're only worthy when they are doing for others. Well, guess what? You are fully deserving of miracles just the way you are. But if you haven't yet internalized that, you might not be able to completely experience that place where you're in effortless flow, where you feel like everything in the universe is working in your favor, like the wind is at your back and life just feels amazing.

Heart Hero friend, your empathy, generosity, and love are powerful, yet it's even more powerful when you're able to give from a full cup. And if you're not able to do that, you can find yourself stuck outside the "Miracle Zone."

And that means not being able to fully experience that place where you're in effortless flow, where you feel like everything in the universe is working in your favor, like the wind is at your back and life just feels amazing.

Instead, you may be experiencing the "mediocre zone" where much of life feels like an uphill struggle, you get bogged down in day-to-day stress, anxieties, and insecurities, and you can't seem to make things "click" even though you KNOW you're just scratching the surface of how good life can be.

The 5 Essential Superpowers

In order to fully create the circumstances for more miracles to flow in your life, there are FIVE things you need to be doing, and leading with an open heart is one essential ingredient. And even though Heart Hero is YOUR superpower, it takes embodying all 5 areas to truly live in the Miracle Zone and be open to the flow of miracles and joy and abundance you never thought was possible. Here are the other 4:

Trust In the Universe

Know that you are always taken care of by a benevolent universe. Live in the magic of the present moment, and follow signs and synchronicities that guide your next steps.

Live From the Soul

Deeply connect to your inner source of power and wisdom, and trust yourself and your intuition, even if that sometimes means going against the crowd or conventional wisdom.

Choose Where You Put Your Energy and Attention

Be intentional when it comes to what you want to bring into their world, and consciously focus your energy on what you want to create.

Take Responsibility for Your Life

See yourself as a victor of life rather than a victim. Take aligned action, knowing that you're co-creating your results with the Universe.
